Course Overview:
Through the examination of a fictional crime scene, students examine concepts of biology and medicine by exploring medicinal history, and autopsy and toxicology reports.

Goals and Objectives:
The activities and projects focus on human physiology, medicine, and research processes.

Project Highlights:
- Investigation of a crime scene
- Blood splatter analysis
- Diabetes testing
- DNA extraction
- Blood pressure and EEG measurements